

JENNY KERR

Original Americana

Electrifying frontwoman, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Jenny Kerr is known for her rip-roaring live shows and a powerful roots sound that takes detours through Tijuana, Memphis, and the Mississippi Delta. Kerr is known for her vocals which have been described as "...thick and rich as delta soil, honed and powerful, Kerr's voice is an instrument itself, whether making you want to raise the rafters or cry in your beer. Who needs a major label?" --TAMARA BUNNELL, Country Standard Time, and "...flat-out great Americana, in the same league of such greats Tom Russell and Nanci Griffith." --ED IVEY, Blues Revue Magazine.

Kerr has toured Europe seven times and has become a regular favorite on the country/blues/roots circuit. She's headlined festivals all over the world including Germany, France, Spain, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Austria and Mexico—most recently at the Zihuatanejo International Guitar Festival. Tour highlights included a headline slot at Mirande—Europe's largest country music festival—as well as a 2006 summer tour with legendary guitar player/producer Pete Anderson (Dwight Yoakum) and performances with Peter Rowan and Barry Melton (Country Joe and the Fish). She's shared top billing with legends like Charlie McCoy and Americana greats Guy Clark, Jack Ingram, and Lee Roy Parnell. She regularly performs at EuroDisney.

National Dutch Television, NPS, featured the band on their award-winning program "Het Klokhuis". This broadcast can be viewed on her website.
